

Where Does The Money Go?

The Oak Ridge Easter Horse Show, Whose Parent Group, The Oak Ridge Community Center, Inc, a Non-Profit Organization, is a Charity Event Produced Totally by Volunteers. All Proceeds are Distributed to Other Worthwhile Non-Profit Organizations to Assist In Their Respective Endeavors.

The Following Programs or Activities have recently received assistance from the Oak Ridge Easter Horse Show:

- College scholarships for seniors from Northwest Guilford High School
- Girl Scouts and Girls athletic programs
- Boy Scouts and Boys athletic programs
- Support of area churches regardless of denomination in their support of The Needy
- Fire Department and their community based programs such as feeding the Elderly and Fire Prevention Programs
- Ladies Auxiliary of local Fire Departments
- Oak Ridge Elementary School

Purchases include encyclopedias, furniture, copy machines, PE equipment, refrigerators, playground equipment, blinds, and supplies. Donations include building the gymnasium, installing ball fields and lights, purchasing equipment as well as paying for many ongoing expenses.

- Oak Ridge Elementary PTA
 - Northwest Middle and High Schools
 - Oak Ridge Military Academy
 - Northwest High Band Program
 - Northwest High JRNROTC
 - Therapeutic Horsepower
 - Guilford County Recreation Department
 - Meals on Wheels
 - Nat Greene Home
 - NC Veterinary Research
 - YMCA
 - Jaycees
 - Fire Victim Donation Program
 - Oak Ridge Youth Association
- And many others in smaller gifts as needed.